THE WOLF

nineteen hundred fifty

This, the 1950 Wolf, is dedicated to the HOLY YEAR

For from the rising of the sun to the going down, My name is great among the Gentiles, and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to My name a clean oblation: for My name is great among the Gentiles, saith the Lord of hosts.

The prophecy of Malachias about 300 years before Christ.

The Mass travels with the sun. No matter when you look at your clock, it is early morning somewhere . . . and some Priest is offering Mass. More than 300,000 Masses every 24 hours . . . the prophecy of Malachias fulfilled!

Prayer

Almighty and Eternal God, with our whole soul we thank Thee for the great gift of the Holy Year... May the Holy Year be for all men a year of purification and sanctification... the year of the great return and of the great pardon..... We place our lot in Thy hands, uniting our weak prayers to the intercession and the merits of the most glorious Virgin Mary and all the Saints.

The Very Reverend THOMAS J. SHIELDS, S.J., President.

President

This year, 1950, marks the mid-century of the era which in 1900 was greeted as the greatest, most prosperous and happiest of all centuries.

Marred by two world wars and the worst financial depression of all times, the first fifty years of the present century have not measured up to expectations.

Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, has proclaimed this a Holy Year—a time of repentance and prayer.

Millions, heeding the invitation of the Holy Father, are profiting by the Holy Year to increase in holiness. Others are ignoring the call.

During the past five decades many men have turned away from religion and God. They sought salvation in science and science is leading them to atomic destruction. They repudiated objective truth, morality, and every vestige of the supernatural and thus engrossed in naturalism they have become slaves to totalitarian governments. If the world is to have peace and prosperity, men must repent their sins and turn to God. One of the objectives of the Holy Year is to lead men in general and each individual in particular to repentance for past sins.

The other great objective of the Holy Year is to draw all closer to God by prayer and by a holy life. This, always the high objective of Loyola University, is specially emphasized this year. I am happy to know the Wolf has chosen as its theme "the Holy Year."

May all people grow in the knowledge and the love and the service of God our Creator and Lord to Whose greater glory Loyola University is dedicated.

THOMAS J. SHIELDS, S.J.
President.

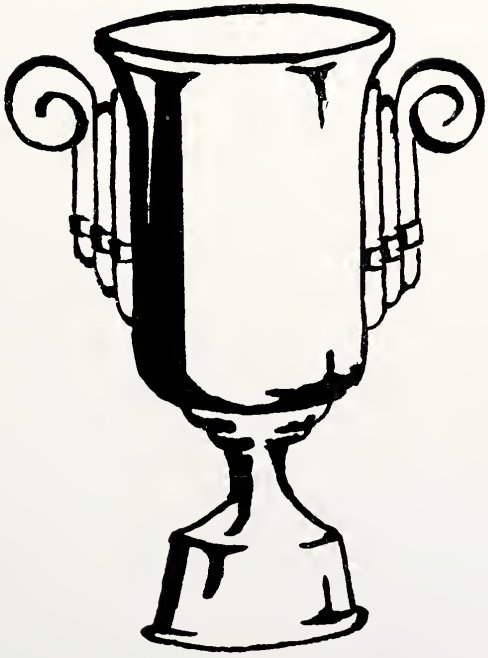
ACTIVITIES

AWARDS



Student Council President, Claus Sadlier.

Father Guterl and Sadlier discuss plans for 1950.

STUDENT COUNCIL

We are grateful to this year's Student Council for re-establishing the Hausmann Trophy Competition. The trophy is awarded annually to the class, Freshman or Sophomore, that wins four of the seven athletic or academic events. The spirit and vigor displayed by the two classes mirrored the enthusiasm of the University as a whole.

The Student Council sponsors the weekly gym-jams, the Popularity Contest, the campus elections, and the publication of the "L" book. In addition, the Student Council organizes and co-ordinates other campus activities, and acts as a mediator between students and faculty.

Claus Sadlier, President of the Music School, was elected Student Council President, an office which he filled admirably. He was assisted in his work by the other five college presidents and the twenty-two members chosen by the student body.

President of the Colleges: James Cobb, Business Administration; Dick Saucier, Arts & Sciences; James Ussery, Pharmacy; Claus Sadlier, Music; Henry Elkins, Law; Dwight W. MacCurdy, Dentistry.

The Student Council: Seated: Sally Barker, Bus. Adm.; Mary Margaret Keenan, Music; Joan Boudousquie, A&S; Flo Mary Scheib, A&S; Sue Wild, Bus. NFCCS

Father Guterl, Regional Chaplain, and Daniel Quinn, Regional President, have worked hard during the past year to extend the influence of the NFCCS.

The purpose of this organization is threefold: 1) to promote greater unity among Catholic colleges; 2) to make the students aware of national problems and of their own responsibility as Catholics; and, 3) to aid students in war-wrecked countries.

Early in the year, a Regional Congress was held at Xavier University. Speakers from the National Chapter, among them the National President and Chaplain, informed the delegates of the problems now facing the Federation. At this congress a constitution for the Southeastern Region was drawn up.

Various events were sponsored periodically through the year by the NFCCS. Sacred Heart College of Grand Coteau was the center for an informative International Day and later for an inspiring program on interracial affairs. The Pan-American Day, held on the Loyola campus, was an outstanding success also.

The Interracial Commission cooperated with the Catholic Committee of the South in bringing Bishop Kiwanuka to New Orleans and arranging for him to speak to the students at Holy Name Auditorium. Here on the campus, a workshop was held to properly instruct new members and officers in their duties and in correct procedures.

THE STUDENT RETREAT

The annual student retreat is an integral part of the University curriculum here at Loyola, for every student needs the steadying influence of a quiet three-day withdrawal from the cares and troubles of everyday life.

During these three days of prayer and meditation under the guidance of a capable retreat master, the student comes closer to God—his creator. In addition, the student has time to reflect on his past life and make plans for improving himself in the future.

To Fathers O'Neil and Curley, we owe many thanks for making our retreats this year so interesting and spiritually profitable.

THE MAROON

For 37 years now the Loyola Maroon has been making as well as recording history. The student publication, edited and staffed by students of the University, has done its job well by spreading Catholic thought through its editorials and by keeping the student body aware of all activities and events taking place on the campus.

To the 1949-1950 editor, Paul Steen, and to his capable helpers we say "Thanks a million." In the years since its founding the Maroon has won many honors, local and national. This year the staff entertained high school editors at a buffet supper here at Loyola. This was the first get-together of its kind to be held in New Orleans.

In addition to other accomplishments, this year's Maroon has left an example which could well be followed in coming years —THE PAPER NEVER MISSED A SINGLE DEADLINE.

THE EDWARD DOUGLASS WHITE DEBATING SOCIETY

In spite of its small membership, the Edward Douglass White Society continued to accomplish its purpose during the session by participation in intercollegiate and intramural debates.

Only one tournament was entered by this year's debating team, whose members must necessarily be in the society, and that was the Azalea Tournament at Spring Hill College. In spite of the fact that three of the four members had no prevoius tournament experience, the team was victorious over Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, and three other large Universities. The team's record stands with six wins against six losses.

In additon to the regular meeting debates, one public debate was put on for the student body on the subject: Resolved: That the Student Council Be Abolished. The society also assisted the Council in putting on the Hausmann Debate.

With the closing of the year's activities the Society promises to grow and become an even greater credit to the University in the years to come.

Mr. Bernard Ward, Moderator of the society and Pat Schott, President.

W W L

WWL is Loyola's 50,000 watt clear channel radio station. The station, an affiliate of the Columbia Broadcasting System, is noted for its wide range and interesting programs. In addition, to the planned programs, W W L also brings to its listening audience the latest in sports and news — local, national, and worldwide.

Father John A. Toomey, Wolf Moderator.

THE WOLF

This is the Wolf—your yearbook. May it bring back many happy, and even some not so happy, memories of your college days at Loyola.

To the staff of the Wolf, this book connotes days and nights of hard work. To the editorial staff in particular, it meant drawing up the "dummies" for the various sections, seeing the photographer about reprints of pictures, visiting the engraver and printer numerous times, writing script for hours and hours on end, and finally "wrapping things up."

To the business staff went the problem of raising money to cover the cost of the book, the sending of bills and the attempts to see the ever "not present" business managers of downtown stores.

We of the Wolf staff hope that we have done a good job this year. If the Wolf satisfies you, then we can consider our efforts well repaid.

Victor Bradbury, recipient of the 1950 Rho Chi Award.

Rho Chi, national, honorary society in Pharmacy School, initiated the Rho Chi Award this year. The award is given to the freshman in the Loyola College of Pharmacy who attains the highest scholastic average during his first year. Vic Bradbury, a member of the American Pharmaceutical Association, the Student Council, and the St. John Berchman Sodality, is an outstanding student not only in scohlastic endeavors but also in campus popularity.

Congratulations, Vic, and may you keep up the high standards called for by this honor.

THE RHO CHI AWARD

CHARLES BAILEY AWARD

Joe Famiglio, outstanding man on the campus, receives the A.D.G. Award from the very reverend Father Thomas J. Shields, S.J.

The Charles Bailey Award, an annual award given to the outstanding male student leader on the campus, was presented this year to Joseph P. Famiglio. The qualifications for receiving this award are scholastic ability, school spirit, leadership and loyalty.

During the past year, Joe, a Bus. Adm. Senior, was editor of the Wolf, Vice-President of Blue Key Honor Service Fraternity, a member of St. Stanislaus Sodality, a member of P.K.E., a member of the Executive Council of E.K.S., and past president of that organization. He was also a member of A.P.O., Loyola Service Fraternity.

Joe picks up some Wolf correspondence.

LAMBDA SIGMA LAMBDA AWARD

The outstanding girl, Gwen Betpouey, receives the Lambda Sigma Lambda award from the very Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Shields, S.J.

Awarded annually to the most active co-ed at Loyola, the Lambda Sigma Lambda award exemplifies loyalty, school spirit, service, and leadership.

The award this year was presented to Gwen Betpouey. Gwen was treasurer of Lambda Sigma Lambda, a member of the Student Council, a member of the Little Flower Sodality, class co-editor of the Wolf, a member of the Thespians, and member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1949-50.

Gwen merited this honor through many hours of hard work and by always displaying a high spirit and ability as a leader in all her activities.

Gwen, pausing at the pamphlet rack.

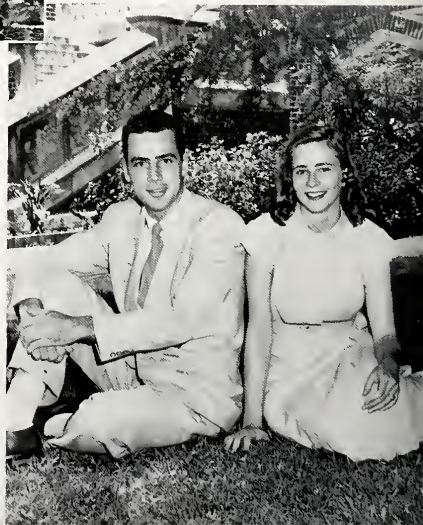
Hugh Casteix, most popular athlete.

Blanche Mouledoux and Bob Hull—best dressed co-ed and male.



Patricia Beck and James Comiskey—prettiest co-ed and most handsome male.

CONTEST

Betty Johnson and Frank Charbonnet—most popular co-ed and male.

Gwen Betpouey and Henry Asher—most active co-ed and male.

Tony Liuzza—wittiest student.

RESERVE OFFICERS

Loyola's ROTC — Reserve Officers Training Corps — is a battalion of Military Police, the army's troublshooters. Lieutenant Colonel Andrew B. Padgett is the commanding officer of Loyola's unit. He is assisted by a very capable staff of seasoned veterans from the regular army. This year's student commander is Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Robert Tenison, one of the MP's outstanding men. This is the third year the unit has existed on the campus. It has gained during that time in growth and prestige. This is the first year that all physically-fit Arts and Sciences freshmen have been obliged to join the Loyola ROTC and the ranks of the unit have swelled considerably.

It has become a familiar sight every Tuesday to see a great number of Loyolans in khaki with the tricolor and torch insignia of the ROTC. Every Tuesday afternoon the Military Police conduct an inspection and drill. Regular dress inspections are held also, especially for review by visiting officers.

The Loyola ROTC is quartered in a spacious army barracks near the athletic field. In this building are housed the offices and equipment of the unit.

Besides drill, regular classroom courses in Military Sciences are scheduled. Reservists are taught military courtesy by way of copies of the Soldier's Handbook. Other courses range from care of small arms to the handling and dispersing of riots. All is not work for the boys in olive drab for their annual dance at Camp Leroy Johnson is known to be quite a popular and successful affair.

Highlights of the ROTC year at Loyola were: being reviewed by Major General Parker of the regular army who commended the unit highly; and the battalion's colorful and smooth handling of the university's reception of Chilean president Videla.

Summer camp is the highlight of the reserve officers' curriculum. Every student must attend the camp after his third or fourth year. The fourth year reservist, if qualified, may receive a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the regular army.

Ticket selling for the big Talent Nite.

President Charbonnet presents an award to members of a frat skit.

Qualifications for Blue Key, national honor society, are rigid. To become a member, a student must possess high moral character, outstanding leadership ability, scholastic proficiency, and must have rendered conspicuous service to the University. Last year's recipient of the Charles Bailey award, Frank Charbonnet, is prexy of this group. Dr. John Arnold, Jr. is moderator. This year Blue Key again sponsored the ever-popular and growing Talent Nite which was held in the Municipal Auditorium. In addition, Loyola's chapter co-sponsored a Valentine Dance in the cafeteria. Proceeds went to the American Heart Association.

ATHLETICS . . . '49–'50

LOYOLA
University

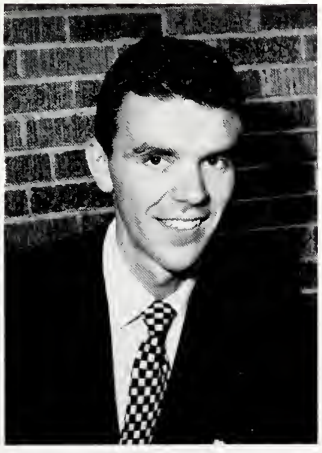
REV. LESTER F. X. GUTERL, S.J.

Fr. Guterl in his capacity of director of activities and athletics is an inspiration for all those under him. Never is there a function, whether it be basketball, baseball, track or tennis, where Father's familiar and friendly presence is not seen.

MR. JACK ORSLEY

Elevated to the position of athletic director, the former basketball coach deserves much of the credit for the great strides Loyola has made in the field of athletics during the past few years. In spite of the fact that he must look after the entire athletic program, Coach Orsley continues to coach the basketball team which has just missed championships in the last two years.

JAMES McCAFFERTY, Basketball and Track coach.



PETER FINNEY, former Wolfpack player and present Wolfpup coach.

EDWIN P. FRICKE, publicity director for Loyola athletics.

The Rev. JAMES MOLLOY, S.J., coach of the championship tennis team.

THE WOLF PACK

Although the Wolfpack of 1950 was not a winning team, seldom has more spirit been shown on the hardwood. Coach McCafferty labored under many handicaps, including a lack of height which is regarded by many as a necessity on a successful basketball team.

A standout performance of the year was the LSU game, in which the odds were heavily stacked against the Pack, and still the old fight was enough to throw a real scare at the Tigers.

The team was sparked by Huey Casteix, whose shooting and general ball-handling was sometimes spectacular. Also deserving mention are Carl Lavie, and George Vila.

THE WOLF PUPS

Pete Finney took over the reins of the Loyola Wolfpups this season and the former 'Pup star took up where former coach "Big Jim" McCafferty left off. The Wolfpups wound up their 1949-50 cage season with a thrilling 56-55 triumph over the Troop 65 quintet for the 1950 Senior AAU basketball championship.

The junior Wolves experienced very few losses during the season and entered the AAU playoffs with a very impressive record. In the first round of the AAU championships the Wolfpups barely qualified with a 3-3 record but in the title round, Finney's charges came through with a 5-1 record over such quintet sas the U. S. Engineers, WeDK, the Jewish Community Center, NOAC, and the Troopers.

The new AAU champs came through to win the title in a thrilling story-book finish when reserve forward Dave Nastasi looped in a fielder from the side with five seconds to go in the game. Before Nastasi's game-winning shot, the 'Pups were trailing 55-54.

TRACK

ELMER GRUNDMEYER

The Loyola thinclads' assault upon the Gulf States Conference track crown fell short by one point as the SLI spikemen nosed out the Pack 72-71 by virtue of their fourth place spot in the mile relays and the Pack quartet came in fifth.

It was thrilling meet but the old SLI bugaboo on Loyola prevailed as it has on all athletics in the past two years. The SLI men have held some sort of a jinx on Loyola teams and have beat out the Packmen in three sports for titles.

Coach Jim McCafferty's squadmen bounced back from their disheartening loss in the GSC to cop the 57th annual Southern AAU track and field championships by the overwhelming score of 146 1/2 points to 101 points for LSU, the nearest competitor.

Standout trackmen for Loyola were Elmer Grundmeyer, Ken Leithman, Roland Hymel, Lou Harth, Ernie Miller, and Maurice Riley. Grundmeyer set a new GSC record in the 220 yard dash as he negotiated the distance in 21.5 to slash a full second off the mark set by SLI's Jack Best. Elmer, the Loyola whiz, now holds two GSC records, the 100 yard dash in 9.9 and the 220 mark.

Leithman was always counted upon for valuable second place points in the dashes behind Grundmeyer and the little speedster came through in every meet. Riley showed up well this year in the 440 yard dash. He is developing into a runner of great promise. Hymel, the freshman pole-vaulter, was a valuable point getter this season as he wound up in the top position in most meets and no lower than 2nd in many meets.

Miller was a dependable man in the discus while Hauth was usually relied upon to come through in the javelin.

This year marked a new era in Loyola track. Coach McCafferty sent athletes such as Grundmeyer and Leithman to the Texas Relays at Austin and the Southern Relays at Birmingham. Although the representatives did not fare well, they nevertheless marked the way for future representatives to carry the Maroon and Gold colors on to greater heights.

TENNIS

The Loyola tennis team wound up their first year under Father J. J. Molloy, S.J., in a blaze of glory as the team swept the Gulf States Conference tennis team title as well as the singles and doubles crowns.

Ken Crumley, Loyola's top netman for three seasons, enjoyed his most successful year as he lost his opening match of the season to Pensacola's Jack Behr and then breezed throught 12 straight collegiate opponents to wind up with a season's record of 12 wins and one loss. Add to this Ken's feat of winning four matches in the GSC tourney and his overall record stands at 16 wins and one loss. The six foot 210 pound star from Santa Aana, California, defeated team mate Mel Bodle for the GSC singles crown in straight sets, 6-0, 6-2. In three seasons of collegiate playing, Crumley has lost only one intercollegiate match—that in 1947 to Paul Napolitano of Spring Hill and now the Badger's tennis mentor.

In the GSC doubles event, the duo of Crumley and Bodle rolled along as they did all season—without a defeat. The crack Wolfpack doubles team won the title over Spring Hill's team of Andy Garcia and Leo Denton by the scores of 2-6, 6-0, 6-2, and 6-4.

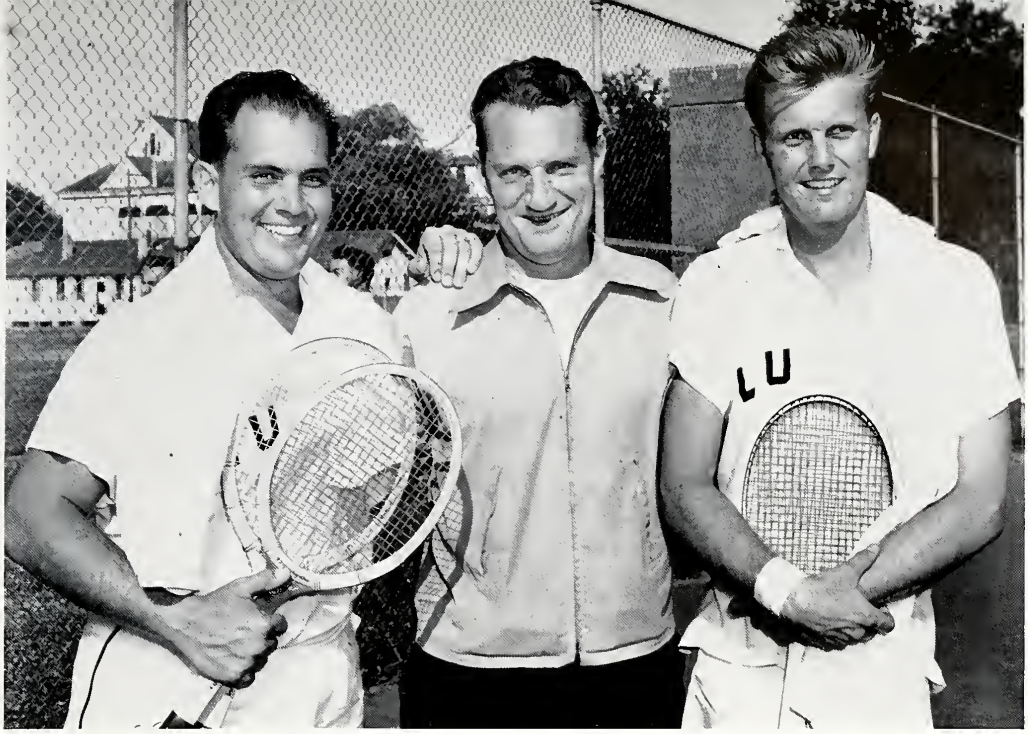
Crumley and Bodle went through 13 straight matches without a defeat in regular season's play and then added two victories in the tournament to stretch their streak to 15 matches without a setback.

The fine doubles team lost only one set in 15 matches and that to Garcia and Denton and in overall games, racked up 190 games won and only 69 lost for an impressive tennis record.

The tennis team, as a whole, had a very good season winning 11 matches and losing only two. The Pack team lost its opening match to the power-laden Pensacola Naval Air Flyers and then won eight straight collegiate matches before bowing to LSU. After the LSU defeat, Loyola went on to win three more matches. The Pack had defeated the Tigermen in a previous match.

KEN CRUMLEY

MEL BODLE



KEN CRUMLEY, FR. MOLLOY AND MEL BODLE, GSC CHAMPS.

Mel Bodle, the No. 2 man of the team and a freshman from Montebello, California, played brilliant tennis in his first year of collegiate competition. His regular season's record stood at 11 wins and two losses while his tournament record stood at three wins and one loss.

Reggie Garcia the Pack's No. 3 man was the focal point of Loyola's game. Reggie was counted upon to win that vital fourth game match for the Pack. Loyola was always assured of wins in the No. 1 and 2 singles and the No. 1 doubles match and needed only one more match victory for a team win. The 11-2 record for the season shows that Reggie, a diminutive player from New Mexico, came through in the pinches. He was Father Molloy's nomination as the most improved player on the squad.

The No. 4 spot was held down by veteran Jack Fox while the No. 5 slot went to Art Geil, who showed great promise in his first year of competitive tennis. Fox and Garcia handled the No. 2 doubles most of the season. John Sanguinetti and Carroll Gordon were alternate players on the squad.

Incidentally, Father Molloy's team brought the first Gulf States Conference title to Loyola. With the squad coming back intact next year with the exception of Fox, Loyola bids fair to renew its lease on the GSC crown in tennis.

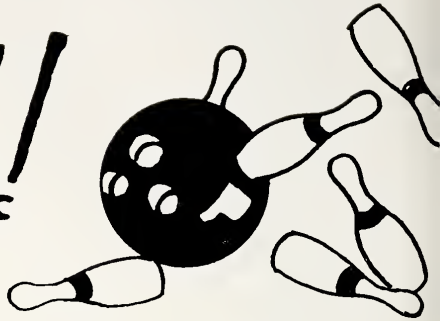
STRIKE!



The Bowling League at Loyola this year created decided interest among the students who participated in the activities.

In the regular school league, 21 teams were entered, 12 men teams and 9 girl teams. The winners of the men's league were the PKE bowlers who upset the applecart by downing the favorite Campus Kids for the league trophy. Members of the PKE team included Captain Rudy Nieto, Charlie Del Corral, Charlie Hebert, Donald McKay, Joe Vernaci, and Walter Garvey. Vernaci, the smallest man on the team, was the big bowler in the line-up. Joe sparked the PKE's all season with a 160 bowling average.

A. GERALD LACEY

The league and its growth is a direct tribute to its organizer, Jerry Lacey. Lacey started the first bowling league at Loyola in 1947. By means of his own "push" and super-salesmanship talks, Jerry managed to get the league started with six teams entered. It was a hard push at first, but now Jerry can sit back and relax and look at the fruits of his labor.

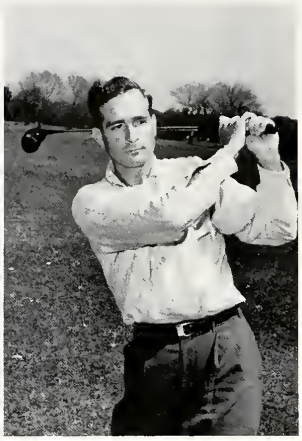
GOLF



CHARLEY HEBERT, captain of the Golf team.

Loyola started its first season of varsity golf competition this year with six matches scheduled with Gulf States Conference members.

A home and home arrangement was made with Mississippi Southern, Spring Hill, and Southwestern. The Pack linksmen did not make their debut an auspicious one as they dropped all six matches. Lack of college tournament experience hurt Maroon and Gold standard bearers.

Captain of the Pack squad was Charley Hebert. Members of the squad included Chester Budz, Pat Buttimer, Dan Knowles, Lee Le Gros, and Robert Rehm. The team was coached by Father J. J. Molloy, S.J.

Hebert made a good showing in the GSC tourney held at New Orleans when he finished third in the meet.

THOMAS J. HAGGERTY

WELCOME COACH HAGGERTY

Loyola University made its bid to enter "big time" basketball with the signing of Coach Thomas J. Haggerty as new head coach of basketball at Loyola.

The new cage mentor brought national honors and recognition to another Loyola—Loyola of Chicago. His five year record at the "Windy City" University was 107 wins in 148 games. An enviable record, indeed.

In 1948, Coach Haggerty brought his Loyola of Chicago team to its greatest heights when the quintet reached the finals of the National Invitational Tournament.

This was not Coach Haggerty's first appearance in the NIT. His De Paul team of 1940 lost out to Colorado University in the semi-final round of the tourney.

It seems as if the future destinies of Loyola's basketball teams are in great hands. Coach Haggerty emphasized the fact that only hard work and sacrifice on the part of the athletes can bring about national recognition for the Wolfpack. He will be able to get that out of his athletic charges.

Good luck, coach!

Fr. Guterl introduces Coach Haggerty to his new surroundings.

INTRAMURALS

Baudier fades back for a pass as Galendez and Keenan of PKE rush in.

Wetzel heaves a short pass for the BBA seniors over the line of scrimmage.

The students of Loyola enjoyed one of their most successful intramural athletic programs this past year. Under the able direction of Jack Orsley, the intramural program offered an outlet for those students whose talents were not sufficient to allow them to play for Maroon and Gold teams.

The PKE fraternity from the College of Business Administration was one of the most successful competitors this past intramural season and figured prominently in team event.

In football, the BA Seniors won their third straight intramural touch football title when they downed the PKE "11" by the score of 19-7. The Seniors, the Notre Dame of Loyola's touch football league, were coached by Wilfred, "Skeeter" Theard and included Captain Jim Quigley, Vic Baudier, Lou Hauth, Ray Breaux, Ray Kitziger, Claude Perrier, Billy Glennon, Don Bellou, Pete Tusa, Don Wetzel, Al Smuck, and Warren Bayer. The BA Seniors were champs of the Independent League while PKE reigned as kings in the Fraternity League.

In basketball, the PKE boys came through with the intramural championship when they defeated the Moot cagers 47-21 for the title. PKE won the Frat title while the Moots won the Independent title. Walter Fleming was high point man for the PKE boys with 14 points. Members of the team besides Fleming were captain Rudy Nieto, Rocky Eiermann, Walter Garvey, Jim Galendez, Jim Quigley, Charley Hebert, and Buddy Elizardi.

In the softball, the Dents and Pharmacy shared the intramural crown. The Dents won the Independent league title while PKE won the Fraternity League title. Pharmacy finished second to the Dents in the Independent League. In the playoffs between the two top teams of each league, both of the Independent teams, the Dents and the Pharmacy boys beat the representatives of the Fraternity League. Time did not permit a play-off for the championship between Pharmacy an dthe Dents, so they share the title. Pharmacy thus retains some of the honors that they won last year.

In the intramural track meet, Roland Hymel was the high point man as he garnered 15 points by winning three first place events. Hymel was awarded the individual trophy for the outstanding trackmen in the 'mural events. Roland won the 75 and 100-yard dashes and then won the pole vault wit ha record leap of 11 feet 4 inches.

Other records established were the half-mile mark by C. J. Comeaux and the high jump mark by Ed Prinz. Comeaux stepped the half-mile in a neat 2:08.1 to erase the old mark of 2:08.5 set

The tennis winners were Yvonne Huhn and Jim Riley while Anne Finicle won the girls' intramural ping pong title.

The Sharpies won the intramural girls' volleyball league title with six wins and no defeats. This is the first year of that event. The Sharpies were comprised of girls from the Music School. Members of the team included Mildred Duffy, Pat Turner, Lorraine Peyregne, Mary Jane Schiro, Mary Gloria Schilleci, Mary Schnexnaydre, Mary Margaret Keenan, Veronica Landry, and Virgie Ravain.

Identifying Marks on His Church

The following is quoted from the Vatican Council: "God, through His only-begotten Son, established a Church; and to give everyone the power to recognize her as the guardian and teacher of Revelation . . . endowed her with manifest marks of her divine origin. These marks are found in the Catholic Church alone. (Through these marks—world-wide unity, sanctity, apostolicity, catholicity) . . . she is herself a great and perpetual motive of credibility and an unassailable testimony to her divine mission . . . (God gives everyone sufficient grace to persevere in the true faith) . . . He never abandons them unless they abandon Him . . . Wherefore, they who by the heavenly gift of Faith have adhered to the truth cannot be at all compared to those, who under the influence of human opinions subscribe to a false religion; for the former having under the guidance of the Church embraced the Faith, can never have just cause for changing it or calling it into question." . . . (A man can never have just cause for leaving the multiplication table) . . . (Only God can make a tree. Similarily, objective examination shows that only God could have made the Catholic Church).

St. Peter's Dome (Acme Photo).

UNITY

The unity of faith, government and worship in the Catholic Church is miraculous. Men outside the Church have never been able to duplicate it.

In the year 33 A.D., Jesus Christ established His Church. He endowed it with four characteristic marks: namely, sanctity, apostolicity, catholicity and unity in faith, government and worship.

These marks flow from the very nature of His Church as He made it, and must always be present. They might be compared to the fingerprints of an individual.

Four hundred million people acknowledge Pope Pius XII as the Successor of the Fisherman. (World Wide Photo).

SANCTITY

For beatification and canonization at least two public miracles are required. Each century witnesses many beatifications and canonizations confirmed by miracles. Only God can perform a miracle. Each century, God, by His miracles, is saying: "This is My Church."

Christ promised that His Church will be in this world until the end of time. Since Christ is God, that promise must be fulfilled. Therefore, His Church is in the world today. To ascertain which Church in the world today is Christ's, one has but to find the Church possessing all the four marks. Examination reveals that only the Catholic Church possesses these marks: unity in faith, government and worship; sanctity, confirmed by miracles; catholicity; apostolicity.

Francis Cardinal Spellman leads a group of American Pilgrims into St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. (Acme Photo).

The spectacle afforded by the Catholic Church: — 400,000,000 people of all races, all nations, all classes, believing the same Faith, obeying the same Leader, nourished by the same Sacraments—has no counterpart in this world.

CATHOLICITY

Pope Pius XII gives Easter Sunday Blessing to about 500,000 of the Faithful from all parts of the world, gathered on St. Peter's Square in Rome. (Acme Photo).

Since Christ, Who is God, wished His teachings to reach all generations unadulterated, He had to make His Church infallible in matters of faith and morals. His Church, then, in this year 1950 will be infallible. In this year 1950, as in all the other years of her long life, the Catholic Church is the only church claiming infallibility. Thus, if the Catholic Church is not the one founded by Christ, there is no Church of Christ in the world today. Such a situation would lead to the absurdity that God failed to keep His promise that His Church will be in the world until the end of time.

Peter was the Rock upon which Christ founded His Church. History shows that the only See in the world going back in unbroken succession to Peter is the See of Rome.

Time Means Opportunity

"Do not squander TIME, for that is the stuff life is made of"

Those who learn early the value of using their time to good advantage are on the right road to become successful . . . And, when it comes to making plans for the future, Youthful Industry will find that the long-time experience of the Whitney is a very helpful ally.

ENGRAVINGS FOR THE 1950 WOLF

BY

H. L. PEACE ENGRAVING COMPANY

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

We extend our most sincere thanks . . . to all who made the publication of the 1950 Wolf possible . . .

To our advertisers for their generous support . . .

To the American Printing Company and the H. L. Peace Engraving Company for their splendid cooperation and service . . .

To Loyola's Faculty, particularly Father William A. Crandell, S. J. and Father Lester F. X. Guterl, S. J., for their understanding and advice . . .

To our Moderator, Father John Toomey, S. J., for helping to make the work a little less difficult and for the days and nights he spent working with the editors . . .

Especially do we congratulate the student body on the interest and cooperation consistently manifested throughout the year . . .

It's been fun working with all of you . . .
